

Good News: The teacher added 15 points to everyone's test score.

Bad News: Everyone did terrible on the surprise test.

Good News: After you were caught littering, the park ranger didn't call your parents, but told you never to do it again.

Bad News: You are caught by the park ranger while littering in the park.

Good News: Jesus Christ took the punishment for our sin.

Bad News: We are all sinners and should be punished.

Good News: Mom cleaned your room for you.

Bad News: Since your room wasn't cleaned up, you weren't allowed to go camping.

Good News: The teacher allowed you to have a treat.

Bad News: You couldn't have the treat because you misbehaved during class.

Good News: God provided a way for us to get to heaven through Jesus Christ.

Bad News: Because of our sin, we could never get to heaven on our own.

Good News: When you got to the soccer game, the coach said you were playing.

Bad News: Because you were late for practice, you had to sit out the game.

Good News: You pitched in and helped your brother clean the garage quickly so he could go for a bike ride with the family.

Bad News: Your brother didn't have enough time to get the garage cleaned before the family went bike riding so he would have to stay home.

Print one set of these Good News/Bad News cards and cut them apart. These will be used in Activity 1.