Day _____ Weather, Sightings, and Events

Day 0 _____
_____ This journal is a record of my time on the Ark.
_____ On the first day, the rain started pouring down _____ from heaven and water burst up from below the _____ ground. It was like nothing I could have ever _____ imagined! (Genesis 7:11)

Sample: _____

Amazed _____

Praying _____

Day 150 _____
_____ Over these past 150 days, the water rose. Water _____ covered the entire earth. After the 40th day, the _____ rain stopped. The Ark has come to rest on the _____ mountains of Ararat. We aren't rocking any more, _____ but there is only water as far as my eyes can see!
_____ (Genesis 7:11-12, 7:17-20, 7:24-8:5)

Day 224 _____
_____ The water continues to retreat. Today, the tops _____ of the mountains became visible. I'm not sure _____ how much longer we'll have to stay on the Ark.
_____ (Genesis 8:5)

Day 271 _____
_____ It's been seven days since Noah sent out a raven.
_____ The raven never returned. Today, Noah decided to _____ send one of the doves out. The dove returned. I _____ guess the land is still pretty flooded. (Genesis _____ 8:6-12)

Day 278 _____
_____ Seven more days have passed. Today Noah sent _____ out the dove again. It returned, and this time it _____ had an olive leaf in its beak! It won't be long _____ now! (Genesis 8:10-11)

Day 371 _____
_____ It's been eighty-seven days since the dove came _____ back with the olive leaf and we knew the flood _____ was over. Today God commanded our family and _____ the animals to come out of the Ark! The earth _____ is dry enough. We have been safe in the Ark for _____ just over a year. (Genesis 8:14-17)
