

Genesis 24 Script

Cast: Narrator, Abraham, Servant, Rebekah, Laban, Bethuel

GENESIS 24:5–9

Narrator: ⁵ And the servant said to him,

Servant: Perhaps the woman will not be willing to follow me to this land. Must I take your son back to the land from which you came?

Narrator: ⁶ but Abraham said to him,

Abraham: Beware that you do not take my son back there. ⁷ The Lord God of heaven, who took me from my father's house and from the land of my family, and who spoke to me and swore to me, saying, 'To your descendants I give this land,' He will send His angel before you, and you shall take a wife for my son from there. ⁸ And if the woman is not willing to follow you, then you will be released from this oath; only do not take my son back there.

Narrator: ⁹ So the servant put his hand under the thigh of Abraham his master, and swore to him concerning this matter.

GENESIS 24:10–14

Narrator ¹⁰ Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and departed, for all his master's goods were in his hand. And he arose and went to Mesopotamia, to the city of Nahor. ¹¹ And he made his camels kneel down outside the city by a well of water at evening time, the time when women go out to draw water. ¹² Then he said,

Servant: O Lord God of my master Abraham, please give me success this day, and show kindness to my master Abraham. ¹³ Behold, here I stand by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of the city are coming out to draw water. ¹⁴ Now let it be that the young woman to whom I say, 'Please let down your pitcher that I may drink,' and she says, 'Drink, and I will also give your camels a drink'—let her be the one You have appointed for Your servant Isaac. And by this I will know that You have shown kindness to my master.

GENESIS 24:22–27

- Narrator: ²² So it was, when the camels had finished drinking, that the man took a golden nose ring weighing half a shekel, and two bracelets for her wrists weighing ten shekels of gold, ²³ and said,
- Servant: Whose daughter are you? Tell me, please, is there room in your father's house for us to lodge?
- Narrator: ²⁴ So she said to him,
- Rebekah: I am the daughter of Bethuel, Milcah's son, whom she bore to Nahor.
- Narrator: ²⁵ Moreover she said to him,
- Rebekah: We have both straw and feed enough, and room to lodge.
- Narrator: ²⁶ Then the man bowed down his head and worshiped the Lord. ²⁷ And he said,
- Servant: Blessed be the Lord God of my master Abraham, who has not forsaken His mercy and His truth toward my master. As for me, being on the way, the Lord led me to the house of my master's brethren.

GENESIS 24: 50–52

- Narrator: ⁵⁰ Then Laban and Bethuel answered and said,
- Laban & Bethuel: The thing comes from the Lord; we cannot speak to you either bad or good. ⁵¹ Here is Rebekah before you; take her and go, and let her be your master's son's wife, as the Lord has spoken.
- Narrator: ⁵² And it came to pass, when Abraham's servant heard their words, that he worshiped the Lord, bowing himself to the earth.

GENESIS 24:63–67

- Narrator: ⁶³ And Isaac went out to meditate in the field in the evening; and he lifted his eyes and looked, and there, the camels were coming. ⁶⁴ Then Rebekah lifted her eyes, and when she saw Isaac she dismounted from her camel; ⁶⁵ for she had said to the servant,
- Rebekah: Who is this man walking in the field to meet us?
- Narrator: ⁶⁶ The servant said,
- Servant: It is my master.
- Narrator: So she took a veil and covered herself. And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done. ⁶⁷ Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah's tent; and he took Rebekah and she became his wife, and he loved her. So Isaac was comforted after his mother's death.
