

Who Am I? Activity Sheet

Answer the questions below, looking up the verses if necessary to find the answers. Then unscramble the letters in the boxes to finish the statement at the bottom of the page.

1. I moved my family from our hometown of Bethlehem to Moab because there was a famine in Israel.
Ruth 1:1–2.
2. I left my mother-in-law and returned home to my family in Moab; I did not go with her to Judah.
Ruth 1:14–15.
3. I promised my mother-in-law that wherever she went I would go. I would be faithful to her and to her God.
I went with her to Judah. Ruth 1:16.
4. I returned to Bethlehem in Judah with my daughter-in-law, Ruth, after my husband and two sons died.
Ruth 1:22.
5. I was a close relative to Naomi's husband Elimelech, and was able to redeem Naomi, her land, and her daughter-in-law, Ruth. They became part of my family. Ruth 3:2.
6. Naomi knew that the Lord had not _____ His kindness to them. God had been faithful to them. Ruth 2:20.

Write the letters in the boxes below then unscramble the letters to complete the following statement:

We see again in this account of Ruth that God is _____ to sinners.

Who Am I? Activity Sheet Answer Key

*Print one copy for each student in your class. Print one answer key for your use during the activity.
You can divide the students into teams, if appropriate, to add interest or save time during the activity.
Students will answer the questions below, looking up the verses, if necessary, to find the answers. Then they will unscramble the letters in the boxes to finish the statement at the bottom of the page.*

1. I moved my family from our hometown of Bethlehem to Moab because there was a famine in Israel.
Ruth 1:1–2. ELIMELECH
2. I left my mother-in-law and returned home to my family in Moab; I did not go with her to Judah.
Ruth 1:14–15. ORPAH
3. I promised my mother-in-law that wherever she went I would go. I would be faithful to her and to her God. I went with her to Judah. Ruth 1:16. RUTH
4. I returned to Bethlehem in Judah with my daughter-in-law, Ruth, after my husband and two sons died.
Ruth 1:22. NAOMI
5. I was a close relative to Naomi's husband Elimelech, and was able to redeem Naomi, her land, and her daughter-in-law, Ruth. They became part of my family. Ruth 3:2. BOAZ
6. Naomi knew that the Lord had not _____ His kindness to them. God had been faithful to them. Ruth 2:20. FORSAKEN

Unscramble the letters to complete the following statement:

L C R U M I F E

We see again in this account of Ruth that God is merciful to sinners.