

Joshua and Caleb

Samuel

Print one each of the nine biblical Heroes Names. Divide the class into 2–3 teams. Tape the Heroes Names on the floor. Tape a line on the floor at an appropriate distance from the names on the floor. As you read the descriptions of the biblical heroes from the teacher guide, students on each team will toss the beanbags onto or close to the correct person's name. The team that gets its beanbag closest to the correct answer will get a point.

Gideon

Rahab

Print one each of the nine biblical Heroes Names. Divide the class into 2–3 teams. Tape the Heroes Names on the floor. Tape a line on the floor at an appropriate distance from the names on the floor. As you read the descriptions of the biblical heroes from the teacher guide, students on each team will toss the beanbags onto or close to the correct person's name. The team that gets its beanbag closest to the correct answer will get a point.

Ruth

David

Print one each of the nine biblical Heroes Names. Divide the class into 2–3 teams. Tape the Heroes Names on the floor. Tape a line on the floor at an appropriate distance from the names on the floor. As you read the descriptions of the biblical heroes from the teacher guide, students on each team will toss the beanbags onto or close to the correct person's name. The team that gets its beanbag closest to the correct answer will get a point.

Moses

Abraham

Print one each of the nine biblical Heroes Names. Divide the class into 2–3 teams. Tape the Heroes Names on the floor. Tape a line on the floor at an appropriate distance from the names on the floor. As you read the descriptions of the biblical heroes from the teacher guide, students on each team will toss the beanbags onto or close to the correct person's name. The team that gets its beanbag closest to the correct answer will get a point.

Noah

Print one each of the nine biblical Heroes Names. Divide the class into 2–3 teams. Tape the Heroes Names on the floor. Tape a line on the floor at an appropriate distance from the names on the floor. As you read the descriptions of the biblical heroes from the teacher guide, students on each team will toss the beanbags onto or close to the correct person's name. The team that gets its beanbag closest to the correct answer will get a point.