Jesus Calls Followers

Key Theme

- God provides salvation from sin through Jesus.

Key Passages

- John 1:35–45; Matthew 4:21–22, 9:9–10

Objectives

Students will be able to:

- Explain how Jesus called His disciples and what they did.
- Describe how the tax collector, Matthew, responded to Jesus.

Lesson Overview

Come On In

Students will practice the memory verse by working on a crossword puzzle and reciting the verse to a friend.

Activity 1: Jesus Calls Followers Class Notes

Students will complete the Jesus Calls Followers Class Notes as you study the lesson.

Studying God's Word

As Jesus began His public ministry, He called disciples to follow Him. These disciples were convinced that Jesus was the Messiah. They ran to tell friends and family that they had found the Messiah. In their enthusiasm to learn from Jesus, they left their old lives behind and followed Him.

Activity 2: Ready, Aim, Follow! Game

In teams, students will answer questions from the lesson. If they answer correctly, the team will get a chance to flick a disc at a target to earn points.

SCRIPTURAL BACKGROUND

Prepare to teach by preparing your heart. Read the key passages listed above along with this background.

In Lesson 11 we learned that Jesus began His public ministry when He was publicly baptized by John. He was then led out to the wilderness where He fasted from food for 40 days and was tempted by the devil. These events verify to us that Jesus was fully man and identified with man. Yet we know He remained fully righteous in His obedience to the Law so that His righteousness could be applied to all who would turn to Him in repentance and faith.

As Jesus continued His ministry, we find that He called certain men to be His disciples. The word disciple means a student, a pupil, a learner. The first disciples Jesus called were followers of John the Baptist. John the Baptist was a prophet. His coming was predicted by the prophet Isaiah who said there would be a voice of one crying in the wilderness to prepare the way of the Lord (Isaiah 40:3). The Jews had waited 400 years since the prophecies of Malachi for this voice. John was that voice, and he had been preaching to the people for months. John was highly revered by the people of Israel as a prophet. So what would their reaction be as he looked up at Jesus and said, “Behold the Lamb of God” (John 1:36)? John’s disciples heard the announcement, and they followed Jesus—just like that. They left their mentor, John the Baptist, and followed Jesus. One of these disciples was Andrew, Simon Peter’s brother. The Bible says that Andrew went to find his brother to tell him they had found the Messiah, and they both went to Jesus (John 1:40–42).

Later, we read of these two brothers who apparently had returned to fishing after their initial meeting with Jesus. Jesus walked by the Sea of Galilee and saw them. He said, “Follow Me, and I will make you fishers of men.” The Bible says they immediately left their nets and followed Him (Matthew 4:18–20).

Jesus also called to Philip, “Follow Me” (John 1:43). What did Philip do? He went and found Nathanael and told him they had found the one whom Moses and the prophets had written of—Jesus of Nazareth (John 1:45). Nathanael and Philip went after Jesus.

As Jesus went on He saw two other brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They, too, were fishermen. The Bible tells us they were mending their nets when Jesus called to them. They immediately left the boat and their father and followed Jesus (Matthew 4:22).

Jesus did not call His disciples from among the religious elite. In fact, Matthew had been a tax collector. Tax collectors were among the most despised people in Jewish society. This was because they collected taxes for Rome, keeping much of the people’s money for themselves. They were often considered thieves and traitors. So what did Jesus do? He saw this man Matthew—the tax collector—and He said to him, “Follow Me.” And Matthew arose and followed Him (Matthew 9:9).

We learn that Matthew invited Jesus to his home for dinner. As Jesus sat there, many tax collectors and sinners came to sit with Jesus and His disciples (Mark 2:15). Matthew had apparently invited others who did not know Jesus to come and meet Him.

That is how the kingdom advances. People meet the Savior, and their hearts are moved to call on friends and family to come and meet Him as well. So Andrew found his brother Simon Peter, and they both went after Jesus. Philip encountered the Lord and ran to tell Nathanael. And upon meeting the Savior, Matthew the tax collector was moved to host a party and invite his sinful friends to meet the sinless one who came to seek and to save the lost.

These men called by Jesus were not spectacular in any way. They were simple men and had no influence with important people. They often faltered in their faith, struggling and doubting God. Yet God used them to influence the world for all eternity with the truth that they witnessed in Jesus Christ. We can learn from this. The Bible tells us that God has chosen the foolish things of the world to put to shame the wise; He has chosen the weak things of the world to put to shame the things that are mighty (1 Corinthians 1:27–28). We are weak and foolish. We are called as believers to follow the examples of these early disciples. We are called to spend our lives declaring the truth of Christ to others.

HISTORICAL/APOLOGETICS BACKGROUND

If you read the accounts of the calling of the disciples in Matthew 4, Mark 1, Luke 4, and John 1, you might get a bit confused about how and when Jesus called the disciples to follow Him. Some have even used the differences in these accounts to say that the Bible cannot be trusted. But if we slow down and carefully organize our thoughts and compare each of the passages, the apparent contradictions disappear. But that takes some effort—effort far too few people are willing to exert.

Try taking a poll at church: How did Jesus call the first disciples? What do you expect the most common answer to be? For most people, the scene of Jesus calling the fishermen to drop their nets and become fishers of men probably comes to mind. But this idea, probably picked up from a sermon or some type of audio or video depiction, is a false view. Now, is this type of misconception going to lead anyone into major error? No. But it is this type of small error that can lead to misunderstandings that cause doubt about the truthfulness of Scripture.

Let's look at each of the Gospels and try to determine the order of the events of the baptism of Jesus, the temptation in the wilderness, and the calling of the first disciples. Look for additional notes in your Bible that will help you connect the accounts. These might be in the form of footnotes, margin notes, or headings above passages that connect the various accounts. Remember, the Gospels give different perspectives on what Jesus did, but they are all true. Matthew, Mark, and Luke all give the same basic timeline. This is why we call them the synoptics ("same view"). Take a few minutes to consider how the order of events in the synoptic Gospels compares to those in John.

Synoptics: John the Baptist preached repentance (Matthew 3:1–12; Mark 1:4–8; Luke 3:1–20); Jesus was baptized by John (Matthew 3:13–17; Mark 1:9–11; Luke 3:21–22); Jesus was led to the wilderness to be tempted (Matthew 4:1–11; Mark 1:12–13; Luke 4:1–13); Jesus traveled to Galilee and preached repentance (Matthew 4:12–17; Mark 1:14–15; Luke 4:14–30); Jesus called Simon, Andrew, James, and John (Matthew 4:18–22; Mark 1:16–20, Luke 5:1–11).

John: John the Baptist preached and baptized (1:19–28); Jesus was baptized (1:29–34); Andrew, Simon, and a third disciple followed Jesus (1:35–42); Philip and Nathanael followed Jesus (1:43–51); Jesus and the disciples traveled to Cana, and the water was turned to wine (2:1–10); Jesus and the disciples traveled to Capernaum (2:11–12); Jesus and the disciples traveled to Jerusalem, and Jesus cleared the Temple (2:13–25); Jesus talked with Nicodemus (3:1–21); Jesus baptized in Judea while John the Baptist was still alive (3:22–36); Jesus and the disciples traveled through Samaria, witnessing to many (4:1–42); Jesus traveled to Galilee and healed many people (4:43ff).

John gives us a lot more detail and shows that there are a lot of events that happened between the time the first five disciples began following Jesus, right after the temptation, and the setting aside of the nets to become fishers of men. And there is a big clue as to the timing of events in Matthew. Many of the events described by John must have happened between Matthew 4:11 and 4:12. Specifically, we know that John had not been imprisoned in John 3:23, so the first five disciples had been following Jesus for quite some time before the calling from the seashore. There is a reasonable explanation for the apparent conflict if we take the time to carefully and prayerfully study the text.

Sadly, even when we can explain these ideas to skeptics, they still refuse to accept the spiritual truths that are rooted in these historical events. John the Baptist called people to repent and trust in "The Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world" (John 1:29). But this is foolishness to those who do not have the Spirit of God. The message of the Cross is foolishness to those who are perishing. They rely on their own fallible reasoning rather than submitting to God's revelation. They claim to be wise and understand the truth apart from God, but they are really foolish (1 Corinthians 1:18–2:16). May we boldly proclaim the "foolish" message of the Cross and the Resurrection, trusting that God will use our preaching to open the eyes of those who hear so that they, too, may know that all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are found in Christ (Colossians 2:1–3).

BEFORE THE THRONE

Dear Jesus, I love your Word! Thank you for including these portraits of your disciples for us. The joy with which they came to you and the quick desire they demonstrated to tell their close friends and family about you is refreshing. I want to be more like that—filled with pure love and confidence in my Savior who brings salvation and hope to a lost and dying world that needs Him. Forgive me for holding back because I've been afraid or embarrassed. Move in the hearts of my students today to see your truth and begin lives of unashamed devotion to the Gospel of Christ!

COME ON IN

As students arrive . . .

- They will complete the Memory Verse Review Sheet. If time allows, have the students recite the verse together, to each other, or to you.

This time at the beginning of class should be used to review the memory verse. We have provided an activity sheet on the Resource DVD-ROM for you to use. You may have other ideas and ways to encourage your students to memorize the verse.

REVIEW

Using the Lesson Theme Posters provided with each lesson, quickly review the previous lesson(s) with your students. Take 5 to 10 minutes to reinforce the important truths the students have heard so far in your class.

Ask the children questions about the previous lessons as you display the Lesson Theme Posters. Reflect briefly on the passages you read, bringing the objectives and themes back into focus. This will refresh the truths in your students' minds and maintain continuity as you teach through the lessons.

INSTRUCTIONS

Print the class notes for each student. Pass them out at the beginning of class. Have students fill in the blanks as you study the lesson.

We will be completing these class notes as we study the Bible passages. Do not work ahead. We'll complete them together during class.

CONNECT TO THE TRUTH

As we complete the class notes today, we will see how the disciples responded when Jesus called them to follow Him.

Studying God's Word

READ THE WORD

Refer to the Lesson 11 Lesson Theme Poster. Last week we learned that Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist. John's baptism was one of repentance, confession of sin, and faith. John's baptism was for sinners.

- ? John was surprised when Jesus came to him to be baptized. Why would that surprise John? He never sinned.
- ? That's right. Jesus was perfect. He never sinned. So, why was Jesus baptized? So He could identify with sinful people and the sins they commit.

► Use the New Testament History Poster included with your teacher kit as you teach the lesson. Emphasize that Jesus ministered only 3 years and He lived only about 35 years. Yet His life changed the world forever and brought eternal life to all who believe.

Yes. It really is amazing! Jesus's baptism by John represented Jesus's willingness to be identified with the sinful people He came to save, and not only with the people, but with their sin—the sin He would soon die for.

? What else did we read about that showed that Jesus really can understand sinful man? It happened in the wilderness! He was tempted.

? Who tempted Him? Satan, the devil.

Satan came and tempted Jesus—three times. But Jesus knew what to do.

? What did Jesus do when the devil tried to tempt Him? He quoted the Word of God.

Yes. Jesus knew the Word of God—He believed it, trusted it, and used it; and finally the devil left Him alone in the wilderness.

Refer to the History of the New Testament Poster. Point out the start of Jesus's ministry, His baptism and temptation discussed last week, and His calling of the first disciples in today's lesson. Jesus was baptized and tempted at the beginning of His public ministry. He was ready to get started. And it is at this point, that the Bible tells us Jesus started to call His first disciples. We are going to read about that today.

? First, what is a disciple? Allow discussion.

The disciples were people who followed Jesus. We can still use that word today for people who follow Jesus. Of course, today it means that we believe and obey what Jesus taught as we read about it in the Bible. The disciples we will read about today were alive during the same time as Jesus. And they literally followed Him—they walked with Him, heard His teachings, and saw His miracles!

But how did Jesus call these men who followed Him, learned from Him, and continued to teach about Him after He was crucified? Let's find out.

Turn to John 1:35–45. Let's read that now. Choose students to read the verses.

John 1:35–45

EXAMINE THE WORD

Observe the Text

? Who are the first people mentioned in these verses? John 1:35. John and two of his disciples.

That's right. John the Baptist and his disciples were together. Apparently Jesus walked by them.

? What did John say as Jesus walked by? John 1:36. "Behold, the Lamb of God!"

? John knew who Jesus was, didn't he? He was the Lamb of God! What did the two disciples do when they saw Jesus and heard John call to Him? John 1:37. They followed Jesus.

John's disciples left him to follow Jesus. Remember, John was the messenger God sent to prepare the way for the Lord. And now the Lord was here, so John's disciples left John to follow Jesus.

- ? How many disciples are mentioned in this verse? John 1:37. Two.
- ? These two disciples went after Jesus. How long did they stay with Him? Look in John 1:39. John 1:39. They stayed that day.
- ? The Bible mentions the name of one of the disciples in John 1:40. Who was he? John 1:40. Andrew.
- ? And who was Andrew's brother? That is also in John 1:40. John 1:40. Simon Peter.
- ? That's right. Andrew was Simon Peter's brother. But apparently Simon Peter was not there with Andrew when Andrew saw Jesus. How do I know? Look in John 1:41 for the answer. John 1:41. It says Andrew went and found his brother Simon.
- ? And what did Andrew say to his brother? John 1:41. "We have found the Messiah."
- Yes. Andrew spent the day with Jesus. But then he left to find his brother, Simon Peter. Andrew wanted his brother to meet Jesus as well. Andrew knew who Jesus was—the promised Messiah.
- Before we go on, take a look at your class notes. Let's recap what we just talked about.
- ? Will someone read #1 on your class notes? What is the answer? Assign a reader. Jesus.
- ? Good. And how about #2? Will someone read that? What is the answer? Assign a reader. Simon Peter's.
- ? And #3. Who will read that? What is the answer? Assign a reader. Brother, Messiah.
- ? Very good. Now, where did Jesus want to go the next day? Look in John 1:43. John 1:43. To Galilee.
- ? And who did Jesus find along the way? John 1:43. Philip.
- ? And what did Jesus say to Philip? John 1:43. "Follow Me."
- ? Good. Take a look at #4 on your class notes. Will someone read that? What is the answer? Assign a reader. "Follow me."
- ? John 1:44 gives us some information about Philip. Look there and tell me, where was Philip from? John 1:44. Bethsaida.
- ? Who else was from Bethsaida? John 1:44. Andrew and Peter.
- So Philip, Andrew, and Peter were all from Bethsaida.
- ? When Philip heard about Jesus he went and found someone. Who was that? In John 1:45. John 1:45. Nathanael.
- ? And what did Philip tell Nathanael when he found him? John 1:45. "We have found Him of whom Moses in the Law, and also the prophets, wrote—Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."

Philip told Nathanael about Jesus. Philip knew who Jesus was. He told Nathanael that Jesus was the one who had been promised in the Old Testament. Jesus was the one they had read about from Moses and the prophets. Jesus, the promised Messiah, had come.

? Look at #5 on your class notes. What is the answer? Assign a reader. Nathanael.

Nathanael went with Philip to meet Jesus. Jesus was gathering His disciples.

Matthew 4:21-22

Turn to the Gospel of Matthew. We're going to read 4:21-22. This tells about a couple more disciples who were happy to follow Jesus. Let's read those verses. Choose a student to read the verses.

? Who did Jesus see in Matthew 4:21? There are three people mentioned. James, John his brother, and Zebedee their father.

? What did the two brothers, James and John, do when Jesus called them? Matthew 4:22. They left the boat and their father and followed Jesus.

? Let's complete #6 on your class notes now. What names go in those blanks? Assign a reader. James, John.

Discover the Truth

A disciple is someone who follows. Jesus called the disciples and said, "Come, follow me." Jesus wanted the disciples to stay with Him. He expected the disciples to follow Him now. And the disciples did. We just read that the two brothers, James and John, left their boat and their father and followed Jesus. They knew He was the Messiah. They knew He brought hope. They were willing to change their lives to follow Him.

We also read in John's Gospel that Andrew went to find his brother, Simon Peter—and they followed Jesus. Philip, too, went to find Nathanael. These men were excited that they had found the Messiah—the one God had promised through the prophets of old. He was here! He was Jesus Christ of Nazareth.

READ THE WORD

So these were some of the first disciples of Jesus Christ—Andrew, Simon Peter, Philip, Nathanael, James, and John. But Jesus called others. We are going to read about another man Jesus called to be His disciple.

Matthew 9:9-10

Turn in your Bibles to Matthew 9:9-10. Let's read that. Assign a reader.

EXAMINE THE WORD

Observe the Text

? Who did Jesus see according to Matthew 9:9? Matthew 9:9. Matthew.

? And where was Matthew when Jesus saw him? Matthew 9:9. In the tax office.

Matthew was in the tax office where he worked. He was a tax collector. The tax collectors were hated by most people in those days because they were liars and cheaters. They collected money—taxes— from the people for the government and often took more money than the government wanted. They kept the extra money for themselves.

? And Jesus passed one of these tax collectors, Matthew, that day. What did Jesus say to him? We're still in Matthew 9:9. Follow Me.

? And how did Matthew respond to Jesus's words? Matthew 9:9. He arose and followed Him.

Just like that, Matthew followed Jesus when he was called. It doesn't appear he looked back twice. He knew who Jesus was. He was willing to give up all he had to follow Him. And Matthew's life would NEVER be the same!

In fact, he did the same thing some of the other disciples had done.

? What did Matthew do after meeting Jesus? It is in Matthew 9:10. Allow discussion.

The Bible tells us Jesus sat at the table in the house and many tax collectors and sinners came and joined Him. It seems Matthew wanted his friends to meet Jesus! So he planned a dinner and invited his tax collecting friends and other sinners to eat with Jesus!

Look carefully at Matthew 9:10. Who was in Matthew's house besides Matthew? Jesus, tax collectors, sinners, Jesus's disciples.

Discover the Truth

I do believe Jesus changed Matthew's life forever that day! "Follow me," were probably the last words Matthew expected to hear from the Messiah! But Jesus calls all types of people to come after Him. Matthew was a hated tax collector, a liar, and a cheat! And Jesus said, "Follow Me."

When Matthew saw and heard Jesus, he got up from the tax collector's booth and followed Him. I doubt Matthew ever went back to work there again! And Matthew wanted his friends to meet Jesus. So he invited them to a dinner at his home with Jesus and Jesus's disciples.

? Let's review a minute. Will someone read #7 on your class notes? How will you complete that statement? Assign a reader. Matthew, tax.

? And how about #8 on your class notes? What is the answer? Assign a reader. Followed.

? And #9? Who can read that for us? How will you finish it? Assign a reader. Friends, dinner.

Ready, Aim, Follow! Game

MATERIALS

- Ready, Aim, Follow! Teacher Guide and Questions
- Ready, Aim, Follow! Student Answer Sheets for each team
- Ready, Aim, Follow! Target for each team
- Pencils
- One water bottle cap per student or team
- Tape

INSTRUCTIONS

Divide the class into teams of 2–4 depending on the size of your class. You may want to adapt so each student plays on his/her own.

Give each team a target, an answer sheet, and a water bottle cap.

Firmly tape all the edges of the targets onto a smooth table surface, so each team has access to one.

Teams will record answers to the questions you ask on the student answer sheets. Each team that answers correctly may take a turn flicking the bottle cap onto the target and will record the score on the answer sheet.

Note: Flicking is done by laying the bottle cap on the table and using the pointer or middle finger and thumb to push or flick the cap to the target.

Repeat the questions if time allows.

Were you paying attention? We are going to play a game. I'm going to tape down one target per team. Each team will get a game disc and an answer sheet. After I ask the question, quietly discuss what the answer is with your team and circle it on your answer sheet. Each team with a correct answer may flick your disc onto the target for points. You will keep track of your own score on the answer sheet.

Divide the students into teams and hand out the supplies. Demonstrate the correct way to flick the water bottle cap (see note above). Allow them to practice this several times.

CONNECT TO THE TRUTH

When we play games like this, it is exciting to get a high score. You want to win! Right?

But winning isn't everything. It is FAR from everything. In today's lesson, Jesus called His disciples, and they followed Him—immediately. They left all they knew to go after Jesus. Many of them were excited and wanted to share the news about Jesus with their friends and family.

As you get to know Jesus, and come to understand and believe the gospel and the hope that He offers for all eternity, I pray you will get more and more excited—excited about the truth of God's Word and about Jesus! I pray that you will want to follow Him and tell your friends about Him, just like the disciples we read about today.

Applying God's Word

WHAT YOU HEARD IN THE WORD

Refer to the Lesson 12 Lesson Theme Poster. Soon after Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist, He began to call His disciples. When Jesus said, “follow me,” men dropped what they were doing and left their old lives behind. They were excited to follow Jesus.

Andrew ran to tell his brother, Simon Peter, that he had found the Messiah. Philip ran to find Nathanael to tell him the same thing. Jesus's first disciples were so excited to meet Jesus and hear His teaching that they went out and told others about Him. Jesus's ministry was growing!

Andrew and his brother, Simon Peter, were simple fishermen. James and John were fishermen, too—from a family of fishermen. Philip and Nathanael were Jews who were waiting for the Promised Messiah. They all followed Jesus!

And there was Matthew, the tax collector. Remember, tax collectors were hated by the Jews because they lied and stole the people's money. But Jesus chose Matthew to follow Him. And, like the others, Matthew followed Him and did not look back!

Jesus called different men to follow Him. They were pretty ordinary men. There wasn't a powerful leader, a scholar, or a celebrity among them. They were all Jewish. They believed Jesus was the long-awaited Messiah who had come to save sinners. And they all wanted to follow Jesus. As a result of their willingness to follow Him, their lives would be changed forever!

GOD'S WORD IN THE REAL WORLD

The disciples met Jesus, wanted to follow Him, and told their friends and family about Him. All of us who trust and believe in Jesus have been called by Jesus. And we are also called to tell others about Him.

But, some people are embarrassed or afraid to tell their friends about Jesus because they don't want to be made fun of by their friends.

God's Word tells us something about that. Look on your class notes at Romans 1:16. It is at the bottom of the page. Could someone read that for the class? Choose a student to read the verses.

- ? What is the first thing it says? We shouldn't be ashamed of what? The gospel of Christ.
- ? Why not? Why shouldn't we be ashamed of the Gospel? That verse answers the question. It is the power of God to salvation for everyone who believes.

Romans 1:16

The gospel message is the only thing that can save people from the punishment of sin and death. We can't let the fear of what other people think stop us from spreading the good news about Jesus.

Some people will make fun of you because of your faith. But don't let that get you down. Because, some people will listen to what you have to say, and they will want to hear more about Jesus. All you can do is be faithful to tell others about Jesus—His life, His death, His Resurrection. Tell them that Jesus is the way, the truth, and the life and no one can get to the Father except through Him. Only Jesus lived a perfect life and was able to take the punishment for sin and offer forgiveness to all who would believe in Him.

➤ Pass out the Student Take Home Sheets and remind the students to practice the memory verse this week.

? Someone read the last paragraph on your class notes. Assign a reader.

The gospel leads to eternal life. It is worth telling others about.

MEMORY VERSE

Philippians 2:8 And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself and became obedient to the point of death, even the death of the cross.

GROUP PRAYER TIME

- Praise God for loving us so much that He sent Jesus to give us life and hope.
- Thank God for the power of the gospel of Jesus Christ that can change lives for all eternity.
- Ask God to move in the hearts of your students to see the truth, follow Jesus, and share the gospel with their friends and family.
