

---

Print out copies of both wheels for each student, preferably on cardstock. Cut out the two wheels. Use the legs of the brad to poke holes through the dots in both circles. Place the God Is Sovereign circle on top of the illustrated circle, lining up the punched holes. Attach the wheels together using the brad. With masking tape, attach a craft stick to the back of the God Is Sovereign piece, opposite the notched "window."

Cut out the two wheels. Use the legs of the brad to poke holes through the dots in both circles. Place the God Is Sovereign circle on top of the illustrated circle, lining up the punched holes. Attach the wheels together using the brad. With masking tape, attach a craft stick to the back of the God Is Sovereign piece, opposite the notched "window."