

Print and cut out maps and kings for each student. Students will color the map and the kings then glue the kings to the map in the appropriate place.

Print and cut out a map and both kings for each student. Students will color the map and the kings then glue the kings to the map in the appropriate place.