Characters: King Hezekiah—wears a white crown; King of Assyria—wears a black crown; Isaiah;
People of the city

Teacher: King Hezekiah was a very good king. He loved God and wanted all the people to love God, too.

King Hezekiah: Wave, smile, bow.

Teacher: One day the bad king of Assyria sent a message to King Hezekiah and his people.

King of Assyria: Walk in next to King Hezekiah.

Teacher: The bad king told the people to leave good King Hezekiah.

King of Assyria say: “Leave good King Hezekiah. Follow me.”

Teacher: The bad king told the people that King Hezekiah was not a powerful king.

King of Assyria say: “King Hezekiah is not powerful!”

Teacher: The bad king told the people not to trust the Lord as good King Hezekiah wanted them to. He said God couldn’t protect them. Then he went away.

King of Assyria say to the people: “Don’t trust God! God can’t protect you! Follow me!” King Goes away.

Teacher: The people did not know what to do. They were scared.

People act scared and say: “What should we do? Who should we listen to?”

Teacher: Good King Hezekiah was not scared.

King Hezekiah, looking brave, say: “Do not be afraid. I trust God! You should, too!”

Teacher: Good King Hezekiah went to God’s House to pray.

King Hezekiah: Kneel down and pray.

Teacher: God sent a message through the prophet Isaiah.

Isaiah: Come in. Stand near King Hezekiah.

Teacher: Isaiah said, “Do not be afraid of the bad king!”

Isaiah: “Do not be afraid of the bad king!”

Teacher: But the bad king came back!

King of Assyria: Comes back!

Teacher: The bad king said that God was not strong enough to fight him. He said that he was more powerful than God!

King of Assyria: “Don’t follow King Hezekiah. God is not strong. I am stronger than God and King Hezekiah.”

Teacher: Good King Hezekiah knew that the bad king of Assyria was wrong. He went back to God’s House to pray again. He asked God to save them.

King Hezekiah: Kneel to pray. “Dear God, please save us!”

Teacher: God answered King Hezekiah’s prayer and made the bad king go away.

King of Assyria: Goes away.

Teacher: Good King Hezekiah knew that God was the strongest and most powerful. Only God could save them. Good King Hezekiah went to God in prayer, and God answered his prayer.

People: Cheer. “Hooray! God, You are the Lord, You alone! God answers prayer!”
